The Boston Herald tells Congress that it should practice economy. This esteemed counsellor forgets that it is addressing a Republican Congress, and wasting its advice.

A band of Chinese brigands which had attacked a Belgian mission was captured some time ago and three hundred of them beheaded. The band didn't make much headway after that.

Senator Depew pays $50,000 rent for the house he will occupy in Washington during his Senatorial term. As his salary for the term amounts to only $30,000 he expects to have a good deal of fun to get even on the $20,000.

Rev. Jere Witherspoon, of Richmond, is a remarkable man. He has declined an increase of salary. He doesn't think the congregation could stand the proposed increase as well as he could do without it, and gracefully tells them so.

Mr. John R. Dos Bosses, of New York, in his testimony on trusts before the Industrial Commission, said that "nature can take care of the trusts." Nature has about all she can attend to without fooling with the trusts, which are out of her line.

LOCAL DOTS.

— There were no cases in the police court yesterday and nothing doing in magisterial circles.

— The steamer A. P. Hurt arrived in port yesterday and cleared for Fayetteville last night at 7.30 o'clock.

— A lost setter is advertised in the STAR to day. A reasonable reward awaits the finder. Call at STAR office, or at The Orton.

—The Clyde steamship Richmond arrived in port at 8 o'clock yesterday morning from Georgetown, S. C., and will clear, as usual, this evening for the New York trip.

— There were no new cases of diphtheria reported yesterday, and Dr. McMillan says there are no suspects. The excitement over a probable epidemic has about subsided.

— The temperature in the extreme Northwest yesterday was from 2 to 4 degrees below zero, and as far south as Vicksburg, Miss., below freezing. The cold wave is steadily advancing eastward.

— Coon hunters say that there is fine sport now to be had across the river. Messrs. R. A. Burney and Ben Reaves on a two nights' hunt recently bagged nine large coons and brought them to the city.

— The Fishblate Clothing Company is furnishing the police force with handsome new overcoats of uniform quality and color. They are the heaviest and best overcoats furnished the force in many years.

— The sermon at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Sabbath night will be a sequel to the one preached by Rev. A. D. McClure two weeks ago on the subject, "The Bible as Literature," and which was so much appreciated and enjoyed.

— The British steamship Moonstone, which recently cleared this port with gum timber for the Acme Tea Chest Company, of Glasgow, arrived at that port yesterday. Another steamer is expected to arrive for a cargo for the same consignees about January 1st.

— Large quantities of holly and mistletoe are now being shipped North for Christmas decorations. Several boat loads were brought over from the Brunswick side of the river yesterday for shipment. Gatherers say they are receiving very fair prices, and there is an active demand.

— John Rhone, an old colored man bereft of his reason, but harmless, was taken into custody by Policeman Woebse late yesterday afternoon on the corner of Fourth and Chesnut streets, where he was attempting to undress himself. He was given lodging at the station house last night and will probably be sent to the County Home to-day.

— Capt. W. N. Royal, superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line at Charleston; Capt. G. G. Lynch, assistant superintendent at Florence; Capt. W. H. Newell, assistant superintendent at Norfolk; Capt. J. A. Fountain, assistant superintendent at Richmond, and Mr. E. R. Wooten, train master at Rocky Mount, were here yesterday to make assignments of the train crews.

Death of a Venerable Lady.

A telegram received here yesterday morning from Morehead City brought to Mr. L. W. Davis and Mrs. D. N. Chadwick the sad intelligence of the death of their venerable mother, Mrs. S. J. Davis. She died at Morehead City, Thursday night, aged about 84 years. Besides her son and daughter, she has a grandson, Mr. F. W. Fulford, who is also a resident of Wilmington.

Mr. Davis and Mrs. Chadwick left yesterday morning for Morehead to attend the funeral. The burial will take place at Symrna, near the Divis old homestead, about 18 miles from Beaufort.

Fire Yesterday at Noon.

A small frame house on Ninth between Howard and Smith streets, belonging to William Howe, colored, and occupied by Rebecca Reid, colored, burned down yesterday shortly after noon. The loss is about $200, with no insurance. An alarm was sent in to the department from box 17 at 12.45 o'clock, but the house was so far removed from a hydrant and the alarm was so late in coming in, that nothing could be saved.

The Marshall Case.

Deputy Marshal T. O. Bunting yesterday summoned the witnesses for the defence in the case of A. J. Marshall, Esq., which is to come up for a hearing in Raleigh Monday morning. The list has already been printed in the STAR and they, with Mr. Marshall and counsel, will leave to morrow morning or evening to be present at the hearing.

Buffalo Gospel Wagon.

The Rev. J. H. Vigal and his wife, colored evangelists from Buffalo, N. Y., are here with their gospel wagon. The woman evangelist preached from the wagon at Front and Market streets last night, and had a considerable audience of both colors. Her husband played the organ and sang. They will hold services again to-night.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN SPECIAL SESSION.

Unfinished Business Left Over From First Monday Meeting Considered—Bonds of County Officials.

Probably the most interesting action by the County Commissioners at their special meeting yesterday afternoon at 2 30 o'clock was the renewal of the contract with Mr. M. G. Chadwick to care for the county convicts and the stipulation in the agreement as to the amount he shall receive for prisoners when employed under the direction of Capt. Jno. Barry, the road superintendent, on the thoroughfares of the county. Mr. Chadwick had the contract last year and it has been again awarded to him at the same figures—21 cents per day for clothing, food, medical attention, fuel, and other conditions as per the old contract. For the faithful performance of the contract he was ordered to prepare a bond in the sum of $1,000.

For each day a convict is taken from the county workhouse and placed upon the public roads as aforesaid, Mr. Chadwick is to receive from the county 27½ cents in lieu of their services upon his farm.

The arrangement is considered the best the commissioners could have made under the circumstances looking to the inauguration of the convict system, so often spoken of in the STAR.

Other business at the meeting was mostly routine and uninteresting to the public. Col. Roger Moore, the chair man, presided and those present were Commissioners Holmes and Alexander and Capt. Jno. Barry, the county road superintendent.

Upon motion of Commissioner Holmes the clerk was instructed to request the authorities of the Atlantic Coast Line to repair at once the cattle guard and fence on their right of way along the W. & N. railroad from Foy's lane to the railroad track where a gate is now built.

A communication was received from Messrs. J. T. and F. M. Foy accepting the restrictions placed upon an allowance to them for a slight change in the county fence on their lines.

Bids were opened and contracts awarded for county supplies for the fiscal year ending December 1st, 1900, as follows:

For burial of out-door poor to Mr. W. L. Tharp at Mr. Preston Cummings' wood-working plant on Dock and Water streets. The price is $2 00 for coffin and burial and a bond of $100 is required.

For lighting the Jail and Court House to the Wilmington Gas Light Company at $1.50 per thousand cubic feet for gas; twelve cents per thousand wats for electric current or a flat rate of $250 per year.

For caring for the town clock in the Court House tower three bids were received—one each from Messrs. Geo. Honnet, Victor Zoeller & Co., and H. Hauser. The matter was left open and other bids called for.

For printing the delinquent tax list for the current year to the MORNING STAR.

The sheriff was instructed to remit the poll tax of Ben Bonham, colored, of Cape Fear township, on account of his being over age and that of Arthur Smith, colored, on the grounds of non-residence.

An application from Mr. J. B. Mercer asking for relief from double tax on certain real estate, was referred to the County Attorney with instructions to report to the board at its next meeting.

Capt. Barry reported on the cost of a proposed bridge on the new Summer Rest road leading from Wrightsville. He also submitted his November statement of expenditures for labor on the county roads. The amount is $37.75.

Mr. E. P. Bailey, of the Wilmington Iron Works, reported the completion of the county fence between New Hanover and Pender. Mr. W. F. Alexander and Capt. John Barry were appointed a committee to examine the fence for acceptance by the board They will accompany Mr. Bailey on the inspection trip to-day.

The following bonds of county officers were renewed for the fiscal year beginning December 1st, 1899:

Standard keeper George T. Bland submitted certified check for $200 and was given further time.

Constable Wm. Sheehan, Sr., renewed his bond with Messrs. M. O'Brien, Sol Bear and Godfrey Hart as securities, each of them justifying in the sum of $1,000.

Register of Deeds W. H. Biddle in the sum of $10,000 with the U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., as surety, having presented certificate from Insurance Commissioner Young as to their having complied with the State laws.

Treasurer H. McL. Green, in the sum of $35,000 as custodian of the general county fund with Messrs. W. E. Worth, J. S. Armstrong, C. W. Yates and James H. Chadbourn, Jr., as sureties, each of them having justified in the sum of $10,000. As treasurer of the school fund in the sum of $60,000 with Messrs. J. S. Armstrong, James H. Chadbourn, Jr., and W. E. Worth as sureties, each of them having justified in the sum of $60,000 and Mr. C. W. Yates in the sum of $30,000.

Sheriff Walter G. MacRae in the sum of $50,000 for the county poll, school and special taxes with the U. S. Fidelity and Guaranty Co., as surety. For all public taxes in the sum of $35,000 with the same company as surety. He also submitted his process bond in the sum of $5,000 with the same surety.

Dr. R. J. Price, as coroner, in the sum of $2,000.

The board, after considering a few other routine matters, adjourned at 6:30 o'clock, subject to call of the chairman.

INTERESTING RELIC.

Capt. Cumming the Possessor of a Pitcher Made to Commemorate the Death and Burial of Washington.

In view of the memorial celebration on Thursday of the death of George Washington, Capt. Preston Cumming yesterday came into possession of a souvenir memorial pitcher made to commemorate the death of that eminent American and great soldier—the "Father of His country."

It is a gallon pitcher made of delfware and has been owned in Wilmington for nearly a hundred years. One of its last owners was a colored man named James Galley, who died here 30 years ago. Capt. Cumming yesterday bought the old relic from Galley's daughter. Galley was a slave and got the pitcher from the family which owned him.

On one side of the pitcher is a scene representing a monument underneath two weeping willows. On the monument is a profile of Washington and the inscription "Born February 11th, 1732 Died December 14th, 1799." At the bottom of the monument are a sword and pen crossed. At the top are the words, "Washington In Glory." "America In Tears." At the base is an eagle with head bowed and uplifted wings, and the Goddess of Liberty in tears leaning her head against the shaft.

On the opposite side of the pitcher is another scene mounted by an eagle clutching a cannon and flag in his talons. Underneath is a circle in which is engraved, "Peace, Plenty and Independence." Standing to one side is a woman with a cornucopia in one hand and a sheaf of wheat in the other. At the opposite side is another woman, evidently the goddess of wisdom.

The front of the pitcher contains a shield embracing thirteen stars, and the American eagle, emblematic of freedom and liberty.

MR. BELLAMY'S BILL.

Full Text of the Measure to Repeal Duty On Paper Material.

The full text of Hon. John D. Bellamy's bill introduced in Congress last Monday to repeal the duty on wood pulp and all other material used in the manufacture of printing and writing papers, and to reduce the duty on manufactured printing papers, which has met with such hearty endorsement by the press everywhere, is as follows;

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That clause 393, Schedule M, pulps, papers and books, of an act entitled "An act to provide revenue for the Government and to encourage the industries of the United States," approved July 24th, 1897, be and the same is hereby repealed, and after the passage of this act no import duty shall be levied or collected on mechanically ground wood pulp, chemical wood pulp, bleached or unbleached.

SECTION 2. That clause 396, Schedule M, pulps, papers and books, of an act entitled "An act to provide revenue for the Government and to encourage the industries of the United States," approved July 24th, 1897, be amended by substituting the following clause in lieu thereof, to wit:

"Printing paper, unsized, sized or glued, suitable for books and newspapers, valued at not above two cents per pound, three-twentieths of one cent per pound; valued above two cents and not above two and one-half cents per pound, four twentieths of one cent per pound; valued above two and one-half cents per pound and not above three cents per pound, five-twentieths of one cent per pound; valued above three cents per pound and not above four cents per pound, six-twentieths of one cent per pound; valued above four cents per pound and not above five cents per pound, eight-twentieths of one cent per pound; valued above five cents per pound, seven and one-half per centum ad valorem: Provided, That if any country or dependency shall impose an export duty upon pulp wood exported to the United States there shall be imposed upon printing paper when imported from such country or dependency an additional duty of one tenth of one cent per pound for each dollar of export duty per cord so imposed, and proportionately for fractions of a dollar of such export duty."

The bill was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means and ordered to be printed.

Cotton and Naval Stores.

The following comparative statement of receipts of cotton and naval stores for the week and for part crop year was yesterday posted at the Produce Exchange.

Week ending December 15th, 1899—Cotton, 11,849 bales; spirits, 423 casks; rosin, 3,085 barrels; tar, 3,139 barrels; crude, 248 barrels.

Week ending December 15th, 1898—Cotton, 10,347 bales; spirits, 461 casks; rosin, 5,375 barrels; tar, 2,599 barrels; crude, 323 barrels.

Y. M. C. A. MATTERS.

Mr. A. J. Howell Invited to Take Charge of the Night School—Social Event Being Arranged.

The finance, night school and social committees of the Y. M. C. A. met last night at the rooms of the association.

The finance committee met to arrange the budget for the coming year.

The night school committee considered the interests of that branch of the work for the coming year, and decided to invite Mr. A. J. Howell to take charge of the school during 1899, commencing January 1st. Mr. Howell will probably accept the management of the school.

The Social Committee decided to arrange a social event for the first Monday night in January. This occasion is generally known as the anniversary meeting of the association, when the officers make reports of the past year's work. A nice programme, including refreshments, will be arranged.

Sudden Death.

Miss Maria C. Latta, daughter of the late John C. and Mrs. Priscilla E. Latta, died suddenly from heart trouble yesterday morning at her home in this city. She had not been feeling well for the past three days.

The deceased was a sister of the late Mr. John R. Latta and of Miss Helen M. Latta with whom she resided a 311 South Seventh street. She also leaves one brother, Mr. Adam Latta, who resides in New York. He was telegraphed the sad intelligence and is expected here this morning.

The arrangements for the funeral will be announced to-morrow.

Christmas Foot Ball Game.

A letter from the management of the Fayetteville foot ball team to Manager E. A. Metts, of the Wilmington O. A. N. eleven, received yesterday, makes the portability of a game between these two aggregations of pigskin chasers on Christmas day very remote. It would take the Fayetteville boys, under the present schedule, a part of three days to come here and play the game, and their manager intimates that they cannot spare so much time away from home, especially during Christmas. A game for New Year's day is now on the tapis with the Fayetteville team.

School Children Returning.

During the past week the scare about diphtheria caused the parents of a large number of children to stop them from attending the various schools. The class rooms were consequently considerably thinned down in pupils, but towards the end of the week as confidence was restored, the children began to come back in large numbers.

Next Friday the schools will close for the holidays till after New Year.

Masonic Temple Corporation.

The board of directors of the Masonic Temple Corporation met last night. Only routine business was transacted, however, the final settlement of the affairs of the recent bazaar being postponed till the next meeting.

Let us bake your Cakes. Only steam oven in the city. Your Cakes will not have to stand over night. Can bake them at once. Palace Bakery. †

REPUBLICAN EXTRAVAGANCE.

Excessive Fees Paid Lawyers and Others. Suits Brought Against the Sheriffs of Harnett and Ashe Counties.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., December 15.—The Legislative committee, which has been examining the books of the State treasurer and auditor, completed the work to day. In its report the committee stated that accounts had been found correct, but called attention to certain warrants that it thought had been drawn on misconstruction of law and paid, viz:

1. That Assistant Adjutant General J. C. L. Harris, who performed the duty of Adjutant General Royster in his absence, is paid $1,250, while Royster is paid only $500.

2. That solicitors of Criminal Courts should not be paid $20 fees out of the State treasury.

3. That attorneys' fees and other legal expenses paid by the State during the year are excessive.

Examination of the Auditor's books show that during the fiscal year, from November 30, 1898, to November 30, 1899, there has been paid out by the State for "legal services and expenses," $9,997.73. Since November 30, 1899, or during the last two week, the fees thus paid out amount to $1,197.23. In other words, since December 1, 1898 the State, in addition to the Attorney General's salary of $2,000 per year, has paid to lawyers $11,194.96.

Auditor Ayer gave notice to-day that he would no longer pay the solicitors' fees. He has come to no decision as to the other matters.

State Treasurer Worth to day instituted suit against ex-Sheriff J. H. Pope, of Harnett county, and ex-Sheriff Byron Sturgill, of Ashe county, and their bondsmen, to recover State taxes for 1898. The taxes of Pope originally amounted to $3,864. He has paid $1,397. Sturgill's tax was $3,691. He has paid $1,691.16. Suit is brought not only for the whole amount of taxes collected by each sheriff and due the State, but likewise for the $1,000 penalty prescribed in such cases for failure of a sheriff to settle his taxes within the time prescribed. Also, for the ten per cent. of the total amount of taxes, as allowed in such cases by law.

Gov. Russell is invited to be present at the presentation of a medal to Lieut. Victor Blue, on board the Massachusetts, in New York harbor on December 21. The invitation comes from the Association of Patriotic Award in South Carolina.

SAN FRANCISCO MINSTRELS.

Will be the Attraction at the Opera House Monday Evening.

On next Monday evening the celebrated San Francisco Minstrels will be the attraction, presenting an up-to-date minstrel programme, with a large company of talented comedians, singers and an olio of great specialists, at the popular prices of 75, 50 and 25 cents for reserved seats. Sale opens at Gerken's this morning. The Kingston (N. Y.) Freeman says:

"The San Francisco Minstrels, which were at Liscomb's Opera House on Saturday night, gave one of the best minstrel shows ever presented in this city. The jokes and songs were entirely new and catchy. There was a large house and every one who witnessed the show was highly pleased with the many attractions."

A VIRGINIAN KNOWS HIM.

A Very High Compliment to Hon. John D. Bellamy.

[Richmond Dispatch.]

Congressman Bellamy, of North Carolina, starts out well. He is the first man to propose a measure for the protection of newspapers and job printers from the power of the paper combine. We have more than political reason to hope that he will not be deprived of the seat which is rightfully his by the ruthless Republican majority of the House. We happen to know, moreover, that he a man of genuine ability, true patriotism, and absolute integrity.

Improvements at the Postoffice.

A 4,000-pound Moslem burglar proof safe and a Brandt automatic cashier have been added to the money order department of the postoffice. The cashier is a mechanical device that occupies not much over a square foot of space. It is charged with coins and rapidly makes change by the pressure of a key.

The Algonquin Coming.

The United States Revenue Cutter Algonquin, Capt. Willey, is expected to sail to day from Baltimore for Wilmington. The Algonquin will be stationed here, and will patrol the waters between Georgetown and Hatteras.

Chamber of Commerce.

President W. E. Worth, of the Chamber of Commerce, has decided to call a special meeting of that body next Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock to consider some very important matters.

To City Subscribers.

City subscribers are earnestly requested to report promptly at the STAR office every failure of the carriers to deliver their papers. In all such cases steps will be taken to insure promp and regular delivery

TRUSTS MUST BE DESTROYED.

Cato was so fully impressed with the conviction that the destruction of Carthage was necessary to the safety and welfare of Rome, that he concluded every speech he made in the Senate, no matter what the subject was, with the exclamation Carthago delenda est!—Carthage must be destroyed. Cato believed that Carthage or Rome must fall, that two such rival cities could not exist, and that the destruction of Carthage was necessary to the preservation of Rome. To-day in this country the destruction of the trusts is a question in which the American people are quite as much interested as the Roman people in Catò's time were in the destruction of Carthage.

Trusts may not threaten the existence of this Republic as Carthage threatened the existence of her rival on the Tiber, but they threaten the welfare, the independence and the freedom of the people, not by putting a master over them, but by becooming their master, and robbing them of their substance. How? By getting a monopoly of the things the people have to buy and of the products and the labor they have to sell. When the trusts can fix the price of what they have to sell and put a price on what the people have to sell, and on the labor on which they are dependent for support, then the trust becomes practically master of the people, as much so and even more so than a crowned head would be.

We have too much confidence in and respect for the American people to believe that they will permit the trusts to get such a grip on them as to become their masters, and when they come to understand fully what the trusts are it will not take them long to pronounce the verdict and execute it. If trusts have been tolerated so long it is because there has been more or less confusion as what are and are not trusts, and the efforts made by those interested in the trusts to disguise their true character and deceive the people. Some deny that there are any such organization as trusts, and contend that if there be then all combinations of capital are trusts. Thus they try to confuse the issue by placing the trusts and all combinations of capital in the same class, when they may be entirely different.

In discussing this question we have noticed the distinction between the aggregation or combination of capital for the purpose of more effectively conducting a business, and a trust. One is for the purpose of conducting business on a large scale, regardless of what others may do, and invites rather than suppresses competition, while the purpose of the trust is to crush competition and thrive by the monopoly thus secured.

Ex-Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, is a Republican. He is a very bright man, and has written some trenchant arraignments of the trusts. In a recent letter published in the New York Journal he draws the distinction to which we have referred between combinations of capital and trusts, gives reasons why the trusts should be destroyed, and object lessons to justify the reasons he gives. We quote that part of the letter because it covers the ground so well. He says:

"If manufacturers and producers combine in partnership, or corporations, or trusts, to diminish expenses and make larger gains on a narrower margin, so long as competition is open and free no one can justly complain. The fittest must survive; the weakest must go to the wall. But the apologists and the allies of the trusts confound the issue. The irresistible tendency to co-operation both for capital and labor is admitted. It is not denied that in many instances they are benign. Of such the people do not complain, though they are not misled by the amusing pretence that even these are purely philanthropic, and conducted solely for the amelioration of the condition of the poor. It is only when they obtain exclusive control of products designed for the benefit of all, putting an end to competition, destroying opportunity, reducing labor to the condition of involuntary servitude, making the public the victims of intolerable extortion, that they become the objects of popular execration.

"What the people are determined to crush, in whatever guise it may ambush, or under whatever name it may masquerade, is monopoly, and if any man or any party supposes they lack either the inclination or the power, the mistake will be ultimately apparent, and perhaps sooner than is anticipated.

"At this moment there is a coal famine in the United States, which is serious, and may be acute. With a sudden cold wave would come suffering and detriment to half the inhabitants of the temperate zone. Railroads, factories, electric light and power plants, the palaces of merchants, the kitchens of laborers are on short allowance. Without coal, civilization would be impossible and society would disintegrate. Billions of tons are stored in nature's treasuries. Thousands of workmen wait to bring it to the surface, but the supply falls far beneath the demand for this commodity, which is as necessary to man as water, light or air.

"Scarcity is followed by increase of price, though the cost remains the same. As the mercury goes down coal goes us. From Petoria comes the announcement that the Central Illinois Soft Coal association has decided in conference to raise the price from 7 cents to 15 cents, an increase of more than 100 per cen. This is the same association that kept Illinois in a state of civil war nearly all summer to prevent minors from digging coal, in order to rob the people at the approach of winter by declaring that the supply was not equal to the demand.

"A few weeks ago the philanthropists who have monopolized the production of window glass suddenly closed their works, discharged 10,000 laborers and raised the price 50 per cent for the benefit of the poor. In the past year wire nails have been raised 200 per cent, with but slight increase in the cost of production The impudent falsehood that trusts and monopolies cheapen products and benefit the consumer is disproved by the fact that the price of wall paper, rubber goods, food products, furniture, fence wire, agricultural implments, coal, glass and innumerable other commodities controlled by these monsters have been arbitrarily increased for no cause except to pay dividends on fictitious capital by methods that make larceny respectable. They create scarcity which they make the excuse for their extortions. They destroy competition, which left free would equalize demand and supply. They deprive the young and poor of equality of opportunity, which is the underpinning of our political system. They degrade labor in impairing its independence. They are public enemies, and their existence is a reproach to civilization. If any political economist, or interested shareholder, or party boss, or timid opportunist suppose that American people do not understand this issue and do not intend to deal with these brigands, he is listening with credulity to the wispers of fancy."

The people cannot be long humbugged by the pretence that the trusts are beneficient institutions which cheapen production and give the people the benefit, when they see the prices of nearly everything they use going up, and at the same time thousands of people thrown out of employment. The people are not fools, they may be fooled for a time but they can't be fooled all the time, and some of the Republican statesmen, including McKinley, are beginning to see it.

"MONEY TO BURN."

This is a slang phrase, but this is about the view that some of the gold organs talk of it when discussing the money question. The following from the New York Sun is a sample:

"If the British need of cash, arising from the war in South Africa, should cause this country to export gold, a look at the state of the currency as it is described in the recent official reports from Washington will show how amply we are stocked with money to spare.

"To day the total sum of money available for circulation is more than two billion dollars. Estimating our population to be eighty millions, the high-water mark of calculation, we believe, we have more than twenty-five dollars per head.

"We have more money than we ever had. We have more money in proportion to population than we ever had.

"If we should reduce the amount of circulation per capita to twenty-two dollars, we should still have far more than is need for the comfortable conduct of business. And we should have two hundred and fifty millions for export, a far greater sum than the requirements of any European Government could wring from us under the existing state of trade.

"Our silverite friends have been accustomed to howl at the incursions into this country of British gold. Would they have any objections to a flood of American gold deluging the marts of Great Britain?

This is simply rot, and the facts as to the abundance of money are dead against it. But a short while ago the Secretary of the Treasury announced that he would buy $25,000,000 worth of bonds to relieve the money strain. He had previously anticipated a quarter's interest on bonds for the same purpose, and now he announces that he will anticipate the January interest, amounting to $5,500,000, for the same purpose.

If money is so abundant why all this, and why have the banks in New York and other cities been calling in their loans, and why has interest in New York gone up to seven per cent? In view of these facts, it is arrant rot to be talking about the abundance of money, whatever the alleged stock may be.

But aside from that, when they have enacted the gold standard and gold becomes the only debt-paying money, will it not then become a more speculative money than it is now, and be hoarded more than it is now, thus decreasing the volume of money in circulation? Let there be a sharp demand for gold and at that moment it will be cornered, and instead of going into the treasury of the United States, as it has been doing for some time, it will flow into the coffers of the speculators and remain there until the price offered draws it out.

GOOD BUT USELESS.

The resolutions in reference to the Philippines introduced in the House of Representatives Thursday by Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, are good; they cover the case, and if carried into effect would place this country in an honorable position, and at the same time give us all the substantial results that we need desire, and more than we expected when Spanish power was broken in the islands; but they stand no more chance of recognition than the Pettigrew resolution did in the Senate. The Republicans are in the saddle in both Houses, their party has resolved on a certain course to be pursued, and the majority in Congress will support that resolve to the end. They will listen to nothing and tolerate nothing that does not carry with it the recognition of absolute supremacy of this Government in those islands.

They hold that the Filipinos have no rights that we are bound to recognize or respect; that the islands are our property by arms and purchase; that the people who passed to us with the islands are as much our subjects as they were the subjects of Spain, and consequently they are "rebels" now when fighting us as they were rebels when fighting Spain. In other words we bought not only the islands from Spain but we bought Spain's fight.

The justification of the course pursued by this Government has been that we are in and there is no way to get out but to fight out; but these resolutions point a way out, a way most honorable to this country, and one that would be consistent with the letter and spirit of declarations regarding the war with Spain. But that isn't what the expansionists want and that is why they will not favor resolutions like these.

THEY STRANGLED IT.

In commenting upon the Pettigrew resolution yesterday, we remarked that if it got to the Navy Department it would be pigeonhold and the desired information withheld, on the ground that it would be incompatible with the public interest. But they didn't let it go to the Navy Department, for it was promptly laid upon the table and without discussion. We suppose the reason for this was that in the estimation of the Senators who voted to table it, it would embarrass the Government at a time when, according to reports of Gen. Otis and other commanders in the Philippines, organized resistance was about broken up and peace in sight.

This is about the only plausible reason that could be given for the action taken, but it is all the same, practically a confession that Senator Pettigrew's resolution was based on facts. If it was not would it not have been better to have let the resolution go to the Navy Department, and the answer come showing that there had been no such recognition of the Filipinos as alleged? Wouldn't this have disproved the story that there had been, and wouldn't that have cleared up all doubts, have vindicated this Government as far as that is concerned and put the administration in a much better light before the public? If there was no foundation for the resolution it could have done no harm; showing officially that there was no foundation for it would have done good, but refusing to hear it and strangling it before it got out of the Senate, is practically an admission of all it inquires about, and places the Government in a worse position than it was before.

Carlyle once characterized the people of Great Britain as "mostly fools." Coupling the experience in South Africa with the insane howlings for war sometime ago, the probabilities are that a good many Britons have come to the conclusion that Carlyle sized them up about right.

Application has been made in Delaware for a charter for a $100,000,000 sugar trust to fight the other sugar trust. As the girls would say, "what a sweet thing." Now let it proceed to give the other trust a sweet time and give us cheap sugar.

Isaac Wardell and his twin sister had their seventieth birthday party at Stamford, Conn., a few days ago. They and the other children had a jolly time.

Prevented A Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles 10c at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store. †

— Mount Olive Advertiser: Robert Lee who killed Frank Phillips of Albertson's township, Duplin county, a few weeks ago in self-defense, was tried at Kenansville last week and acquitted.

— Raleigh News and Observer: On Tuesday night Ernest Bashford, a young man from this city, escaped from the insane asylum here. He had a room on the third floor and escaped by removing the grating at his window with a screw-driver, which he had mysteriously secured, and then tying eight blankets together by which means he climbed down. He was caught again Wednesday afternoon.

— Salisbury Truth: Last night Dr. Stokes, of the Whitehead-McKenzie Sanitarium, received a message from Dr. Graham, of Charlotte, requesting him to go to that city as speedily as possible. He took a special train and reached Charlotte in fifty minutes from the time he left the depot here, although the special was side-tracked at China Grove for a freight to pass. The distance is forty-four miles. The actual running time was a fraction over a mile a minute.

— Stanley Enterprise: An aged colored woman by the name of Eliza Lilly died near Norwood about three days ago. She was about 100 years of age.—— Mr. Adolphus Mauney, of Gold Hill, was shot in the back of the head while carrying money to the mine with which to pay of the hands. He had about $30,000 with him. The shooting was done by a negro in ambush who used a shot gun loaded with bird shot Fortunately Mr. Mauney was far enough away for the shot to do but little serious damage. He is now able to be up and at work. Four negroes have been arrested and some of them would have been lynched had not Mr. Mauney refused to indentify them as the guilty ones. It is now reported that Postell Propst is the right one. He is in jail at Salisbury.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Roberts threatens to carry the war into Africa. He will attempt to lay the straight-edge of the moral law beside the domestic morals of the congressmen who are attacking him as a polygamist; and, naturally, some congressmen are showing signs of alarm.—Chattanooga Times, Dem.

—— England's plan of campaign in South Africa is now transparently obvious to the dullest observer. Gen. Buller evidently intends to impose so many prisoners upon the Boers that the brave but far from wealthy burghers will be eaten out of house and home and have to surrender to escape starvation and eviction.—Chicago News, Dem.

—— We do not credit the rumor that Quay is despondent about his prospects for a seat in the senate. Quay knows that he has no right to a seat under the appointment of his henchmen, Governor Stone. But he knows also that the senate has a Republican majority and understands fully how Republican majorities act when they want to seat one of their chums. Quay is chuckling all the while behind the woe-begone look which he wears for the benefit of the galleries.—Atlanta Journal, Dem.

—— There are more things in Indian corn than are "dreamed of in the philosophy" of the inexpert, as the products of the National Starch Company at Glen Cove just sent to Washington intended for the Paris Exhibition fully attest. ## JUDGING DAIRY CATTLE.

Numerous Difficulties In Deciding the Merits of Animals.

The judging of dairy cattle is attended with the gravest perplexities, says The Breeders' Gazette. It is comparatively simple and easy to allot positions among beef cattle. Form, quality and bloom are the points on which to hang a decision. If the model beef form is approximated, if breed type is present, if quality is marked and bloom apparent, the judge confidently approaches a decision. That the form is adapted to function is proved by the condition of the animal—that is, the outward manifestations fix the animal's value for beef purposes. However difficult it may be to balance the contending claims of animals of this class, the judge is much more certain of his ground than when attempting to estimate the respective merits of dairy animals. Of course we have made a close study of form as related to function. We have deduced therefrom a distinct type which we call dairy form. We have even reduced this type to a scale of measurements in the hope of getting aid from mathematics, but what man among us is there who will venture to say how much milk or butter a cow will make simply by looking at her? What man is there who will pretend accurately to estimate performance by form? Can you tell how far a frog will jump by looking at him? Can you estimate the speed and stamina of a horse in the show ring?

With all our standards in very truth we work much in the dark when we come to estimate the ability to render a certain performance, such as milk giving or running or trotting, merely by an examination of the form of the animal. We can but guess at best. Of course there are those cocksure individuals to whom a much vaster wisdom (in their own estimation) has been revealed than to the common herd, and some of them have no difficulty in persuading themselves that they possess well nigh infallible powers of discernment, but the man who milks and uses the tester knows that he cannot know without the testimony of the scales and the test tube.

Tuberculosis In Cows.

Professor Wrightson writes as follows in The English Agricultural Gazette:

"The pleasure of dairy farming has been somewhat marred by the idea of unsoundness in so large a proportion of our cows. It is to be hoped that ere long our knowledge will at least be sounder than it appears to be, and probably our cows are sounder than our knowledge. The seeds of disease, alas, are sown broadcast, even in the fairest scenes, but no human measure can eradicate them. There is such a thing as knowing too much, and life would not be worth living if we could see the approach of disease and death. It is well no doubt to eliminate, as far as possible, all predisposing causes, but to detect, in a manner which may be termed prophetic, the germs of a disease which has not declared itself and which may remain latent until death intervenes from totally different causes is going a step too far. If an animal is diseased, by all means isolate it or destroy it, but to do so because an animal reacts to a reagent and thereby exhibits a tendency is, I repeat, going a step too far. All animals have this tendency, for it is evident that although an animal does not react today it may react tomorrow, or at least shortly. The test to be effective should be constantly used. A cow free this summer may not be so in the autumn, and hence a system of monthly testing would be necessary.

"Animal food, bacon, cheese, butter, cream and milk have always been regarded as wholesome foods, and they are as wholesome now as ever. Why should we terrify ourselves with wondering whether animals used as foods, or their products used as food, may have the seeds of disease or death in their bodies (which must be the case) when they are apparently healthy, thriving or yielding large quantities of good milk? As well might we question the wholesomeness of hares, rabbits and poultry, and have every chicken subjected to a tuberculin test before we wring its neck. To such preposterous lengths might we be led but for the strong common sense which happily rules."

Danish Cattle Stables.

Danish cattle stables are kept always snowily whitewashed without and within, and between the two rows of stalls is a central gangway for the passage to the mangers. Large stalls accommodate two cows each, the animals being prevented from access, however, to each other's food. In a trough above the manger clear water runs from end to end, and the ventilation and light are excellent. The cattle have two or three feeds daily of mangel wurtzel, a midday feed of hay, and night and morning are fed with a mixture of rape cake and bran. In summer they are turned out to grass. The calves are equally cared for, and also the multitude of pigs, which fatten on the dairy waste, making bacon of such superior quality that it is in great demand abroad, 132,000,000 pounds having been exported last year.—Philadelphia Record.

—The alarm clock usually catches a fellow napping.—Yonkers Statesman.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worse form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. †

THE TROTTING CIRCUIT.

Sapphire, a 4-year-old Constantine mare, has a record of 2:17¼, taken at Dunkirk, N. Y.

Frank Rysdyd, the 17 hand gelding that won the 2:12 pace at Old Orchard, Me., has a new record of 2:10¾.

In six starts the sensational pacer Harry O, 2:09¼, earned for his owner W. Oter, Van Wert, O., just about $2,500.

Cyrus Bosworth, Cleveland, has a novel three horse hitch. The trio is white, each 16 hands, and is made up of Road Master, 2:22; Rex, 2:30, and Royalite, 2:29¼.

W. F. Duntley, Boston, is training Delto to go without hopples, and the horse has been a mile without them over Rigby park track in 2:16, last quarter in 31½ seconds.

The feature of the other day's racing at McKees Rocks, Pa., was the three consecutive heats of Ruth Wilkes in 2:15¼ each, the fastest three consecutive heats ever stepped on the track.

H. Truax, Peabody, Kan., owns a pocket edition of Joe Patchen in a 2-year-old pacer named Joe Younger, by Joe Young, 2:18. The youngster looks and acts like the people's favorite, "Old Black Joe."

The dam of Thomas C, 2:11¼, by Bankdallah, the smooth going trotter who has won more money with less fuss than any other trotter in his class so far this season in the west, is out of a mare whose breeding is entirely unknown.—Horseman.

Gretna Green.

Gretna Green is a parish in Scotland, just "over the border," where marriages used to be performed according to the law of Scotland. The ceremony was binding performed by a layman in the simplest form, when, being registered, the parties, in the presence of witnesses, were declared man and wife. The first person who officiated at these strange unions was George Scott, who began "his unlicensed ministry" about the year 1756.

MEANS STANDARD OF MERIT

Some Jacksonian Shoe Ideas

Southern people are celebrated for their high sense of honor, their generous hospitality, their devoted friendships and the loyal championing of their ideas.

These splendid traits are convertible into shoe language and exactly describe our

Black Wax Calf, Russia Calf, Black Kid and Enamel Leather.

and our

"A. J. C."

(TRADEMARK)

Hand-Sewed Welt Shoe for WOMEN

All Sizes and Widths.

Fine Black Glacé Kid, Patent Leather Tip, in Button and Lace.

These shoes are the embodiment of the highest shoe honor. They are made of the very best material, in the very best manner, and in the very best style and finish.

They are also generously hospitable to the feet—receiving the feet in the kindest fashion, and putting them immediately at perfect ease, and bestowing upon them every comfort—so delightful is this hospitality that the feet feel at once at home. No stiffness, no tightness awkwardness or newness, no pinch nor pain, but just that charming sense of foot happiness that people think they can only find in the old shoes.

They are the best shoes in the world at the price, and equal those of the best of other makes that cost from one to two dollars more.

We send a pair of either of these grand shoes, prepaid, to any part of the United States on receipt of

$3.25

We will forward our beautifully illustrated catalogue to any address, free of charge, if you will simply write us and ask for it; and in this catalogue will be found full directions for measuring your feet, and how to send the money for the shoes with your order.

We have one of the largest and best equipped Mail Order Departments, having a force of over sixty clerks.

BARIUM ROCK SPRING WATER,

(Old Poison Spring), is nature's specific for every form of skin disease and blood poison. It does not, like soap and ointment, merely destroy for a time the external signs, but goes to the root of the evil and drives out the poison in the blood which causes the eruptions to appear.

METHODIST PARSONAGE,
ROCKINGHAM, N C., Oct. 14 1898.

I can bear testimony to the great value of Barium Rock Spring Water for Eczema and other eruptive diseases of the skin. I have known MANY cases cured, some of them of the most stubborn character.

Truly, JESSE H. PAGE.

East Carolina Real Estate Agency.

R. G. Grady & Co., Burgaw, N. C

All classes of desirable Real Estate (city and country) bought and sold on Commission. Special attention to Farms and Timbered Lands.

We now offer the following valuable property:

Standing Timber

For sale, the timber on a tract of land near Bannermann's Bridge, North-East river, on tidewater. Over One Million feet of fine Cypress timber on this land.

Timbered Lands.

Two Hundred and Twenty-six acres on Roan's Island on Cape Fear river. Some valuable Cypress and Gum timber.

Eighty Acres Near Burgaw.

One 80-acre tract of Land within half mile of Burgaw. None cleared, but easily put in state of cultivation.

Valuable Farm near Greenville, N. C.

A Farm of 250 acres four miles from Greenville, one mile from House station on the Atlantic Coast Line. One hundred and eighty-five acres cleared and in fine state of cultivation. One nice two-story dwelling with six rooms. One cook room and kitchen. One office. One set two-story stables with eight stalls. Two barns. Two tobacco barns. One 16-horse power engine, gin house, gin, press, etc. All necessary machinery attached. All kinds of farming impiements, including wagons, carts, tools, etc. Also, four mules and one horse. Will sell all together or the land separate.

Farm of 143 Acres

in Long Creek village, Pender county—25 acres cleared, balance well timbered. Four acres in strawberries, 2 acres in apple trees. Fine grape vine. Large two-story house. One good New Store House. All necessary out houses. Two tenant houses. Two miles from Montague, a station on Atlantic and Yadkin Railroad; sixteen miles from Wilmington. Fertile land, in a high state of cultivation. A bargain for somebody.

2,000 Acres of Land in New Hanover county on navigable stream; borders tide water. Three clearings on place—one of 25 acres with house and outbuildings on same; two of 30 acres each; balance well timbered. Twelve miles from Wilmington. Four miles from Castle Hayne, a station on the W. & W. R. R. The nearest point of the land to the Newbern railroad is two miles.

House in Kenansville.

One valuable six-room house in Kenansville, Duplin county, N. C., just completed. Known as "Birchwood Cottage," with nice office on lot; also, garden and outbuildings. Located in a desirable part of the town. Kenansville is a pleasant town to live in—famed for its pure spring water and healthy locality. James Sprunt Institute, one of the best schools in the State, is located there.

Fifty Acres of Land

THE COTTON MOVEMENT.

New Orleans Exchange Statement—Supply to Date is 5,875,686 Bales Against 6,901,650 Last Year.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 15.—Secretary Hester's New Orleans Cotton Exchange statement, issued before the close of business to day, shows a decrease in the movement into sight compared with the seven days ending this date last year, in round figures 118,000 bales.

For the fifteen days of December the totals show a decrease under last year of 287,000, and for the 106 days of the season that have elapsed the aggregate is behind the 106 days of last year 1,377,000 bales.

The amount brought into sight during the past seven days has been 335,881 bales, against 453,916 for the seven days ending this date last year, and for the fifteen days of December it has been 745,407, against 1,032,687 last year. These make the total movement for the 106 days from September 1 to date, 5,256,788, against 6,634,084 last year.

The movement since September 1st shows receipts at all United States ports 3,525,414 against 5,072 654 last year; overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers for Northern markets, 712,816, against 551,561 last year; interior stocks in excess of those held at the close of the commercial year 524,801 against 451,357 last year.

Foreign exports for the week have been 141,443 against 234,502 last year, making the total thus far for the season 1,261,764, against 3 451,703 last year, a decrease of 1,189,736.

Stocks at the seaboard and the twenty-nine leading Southern interior centers have increased during the week 62,220, against an increase during the corresponding period last season of 57,168.

Including stocks left over at ports and interior towns from the last crop and the number of bales brought into sight thus far for the new crop, the supply to date is 5,875,686, against 6,901,650 for the same period last year.

PHILADELPHIA THE PLACE.

Republican National Convention to Meet in That City June 19th Next—McKinley Will be Re-nominated.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The Republican National Convention will be held at Philadelphia, June 19th next. The place and date were decided upon by the National Republican Committee to-day after a friendly contest for the honor of entertaining the convention between the city selected, Chicago, St. Louis and New York. The meeting of the committee was held at the Arlington hotel and was presided over by Senator Hanna, the chairman of the committee. Forty-three of the forty-five States and each of the six territories were represented.

The proceedings throughout were enthusiastic and harmonious, every speech that was made emphasizing the fact that President McKinley will be re-nominated and that the convention will, in effect, be simply a ratification meeting.

DEFAULTER ARRESTED.

Thomas J. Hunter, Wanted in Atlanta, Ga., Held Up at Tangier, Morrocco.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, December 15.—U. S. Consul General Gummere, at Tangier, has cabled the State Department to-day that the Moorish authorities have just arrested Thos. J. Hunter, who is wanted in Atlanta, Ga., on the charge of defaulting in his accounts as auditor of a railroad. Hunter at first denied his identity and claimed to be a British subject, but he fitted the description of the fugitive accurately and the consul general is satisfied he has the right man. There is no extradition treaty between the United States and Morocco, but the government of Morocco has consented to surrender the man nevertheless.

ATLANTA, GA., December 15.—Thos. J Hunter, who was arrested to day in Tangiers, was auditor of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad Company. He is believed to be between $20,000 and $25,000 short in his accounts. His plan of operation was to call on the ticket agents along the line for money. This he had no right to do, but the money was forwarded him and his receipt was given. The exact amount of his defalcation will not be known until all stations on the line have been checked up. Mr. Hunter left Atlanta late in October. He has been indicted by the grand jury and warrants are out for his arrest.

BRITISH TROPS AGAIN REPULSED.

General Buller Defeated by the Boers in An Engagement at Tugela River.

BOERS CAPTURE ELEVEN GUNS

British Suffered Heavy Loss—Boers Bombarding Colenso—Fighting at Mafeking and Kimberley—Boers' Report of Modder River Fight.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, December 16, 12.47 A. M.—The War Office has received a dispatch announcing that General Buller has met with a serious reverse, losing ten guns.

General Buller was attempting to cross the Tugela river. Finding it impossible to effect his object, he ordered a retirement in order to avoid greater losses. He left eleven guns behind.

The following is the text of General Buller's dispatch announcing his reverse:

"Buller to Lansdowne—Chieverly Camp, December 15th, 6 20 P. M.—I regret to report a serious reverse. I moved in full strength from our camp near Chieverly at 4 o'clock this morning. There are two fordable places in the Tugela river and it was my intention to force a passage through at one of them. They are about two miles apart,

"My intention was to force one or the other with one brigade, supported by a central brigade. General Hart was to attack the left drift, General Hildyard the right road, and General Lyttleton was to take the centre and to support either. Early in the day I saw that General Hart would not be able to force a passage and I directed him to withdraw. He had, however, attacked with great gallantry and his leading battalion, the Connaught rangers, I fear, suffered a great deal. Colonel I. G. Brooke was seriously wounded.

"I then ordered General Hildyard to advance, which he did, and his leading regiment the East Surry, occupied Colenso station and the houses near the bridge. At that moment I heard that the whole artillery I had sent to support the attack—the 14th and Sixty sixth field batteries, and six naval 12 pounder quick-firers—under Colonel Tong, had advanced close to the river in Long's desire to be within effective range. It proved to be full of the enemy, who suddenly opened a galling fire at close range, killing all their horses, and the gunners were compelled to stand to their guns. Some of the wagon teams got shelter for troops in a donga, and desperate efforts were adopted to bring out the field guns.

Boers' Fire Severe.

"The fire, however, was too severe, and only two were saved by Captain Schoefield and some drivers, whose names I will furnish.

"Another most gallant attempt with three teams was made by an officer, whose name I will obtain. Of the eighteen horses thirteen were killed, and as several drivers were wounded I would not allow another attempt, as it seemed that they would be a shell mark, sacrificing life to a gallant attempt to force the passage Unsupported by artillery, I directed the troops to withdraw, which they did in good order.

"Throughout the day a considerable force of the enemy was pressing on my right flank, but was kept back by mounted men under Lord Dundonald and part of General Barton's brigade. The day was intensely hot and most trying on the troops, whose conduct was excellent. We have abandoned ten guns and lost by shell fire one.

Losses Were Heavy.

"The losses in General Hunt's brigade are, I fear, heavy, although the proportion of severely wounded is, I hope, not large. The Fourteenth and Sixty-ninth field batteries also suffered severe losses. We have retired to our camp at Chievely."

Boers Bombarding Colenso.

FRERE CAMP, December 13, Noon.—The expected artillery duel between the British and the Boer forces did not come off to day. The British bombarded positions around Colenso, but the Boers did not reply.

LONDON, December 15.—A special dispatch, received here to-day from Frere camp, says that simultaneously with the bombardment of Colenso a furious artillery duel commenced between the garrison of Ladysmith and the Boers on Umbulwan hill.

LONDON, December 15.—The War Office has received the following dispatch from the officer commanding at Orange river, Thursday, December 14:

"Yesterday part of the mounted infantry, under Captain Bradshaw, and the Yorkshire and Lancashire guides, under Lieutenant MacFarlane, patrolled in the direction of Raman and Zoutspan drift, about ten miles east of Orange river, to reconnoitre and report the strength of the enemy, reported to be holding the drift. The mounted infantry found a strong detachment of the enemy at the drift and a sharp engagement ensued. The enemy ultimately retreated to Goemansberg. Captain Bradshaw and three men were killed; Lieutenant Gregson, of the East Kents, and seven men were wounded. The Boers had five men killed and several wounded."

Boers' Report Modder River Fight.

PRETORIA, December 12.—This official announcement has been made:

"General Cronje reports that yesterday there was desultory fighting till 6 o'clock, when heavy cannon fire was resumed. The Scandinavians stormed a difficult position but it became untenable and they suffered severely. I was unable to send help. The British were in overwhelming force, but must have had at least two thousand men put out of action—either in killed or wounded.

Another official report from Cape Town says:

"There were no signs of surrender, the burghers fighting with conspicuous bravery and maintaining their positions under heavy British fire. Our cannons were of very little use.

"The British were greatly assisted by balloons. Twenty four ambulances were working backward and forward between the fighting line and the enemy's camp.

"Our loss is not definitely known. I estimate it at 100 killed and wounded."

A telegraph operator at the Modder river wires:

"Gun and Maxim firing has been proceeding since 5:30 this morning. At ten, cannonading was proceeding and at 2 o'clock the fighting was reported to be very severe. The Boer force along the river bank was being heavily attacked, and is receiving assistance from the other Boer forces."

It is not known whether the operator refers to the fighting of Monday or to renewed fighting on Tuesday.

LONDON, December 15.—A special dispatch from Modder River says the firing reported by a telegraph operator was the resumption of the fighting between General Metheun's forces and those of the Boers.

Fighting at Mafeking.

PRETORIA, Monday.—It is unofficially announced that Molopo, west of Mafeking, was bombarded December 11 Sharp fighting occurred.

The Boers attacked a British post at Mafeking during the night of December 10. After severe fighting the Boers were repulsed and retired to Suyman's fort.

Advices from Kimberly.

LONDON, December 15.—The War Office has a dispatch from Colonel Kekewish, dated Kimberly Sunday, December 10, saying:

"The Boers have again attacked Kukuman and have again been repulsed by loyalists and Bechuanas.

"The Kimberley forces made a demonstration northward, December 6, and drew 500 Boers and three guns. Fighting ensued for several hours. The British casualties were one killed and seven wounded.

Effect of News in London.

LONDON, December 16, 4.30 A. M.—The news of General Buller's reverse was received so late that the morning newspapers' comment to day is confined to perfunctory expressions of extreme regret and disappointment, and of the necessity of calmness and redoubled efforts to retrieve the position. The latest check is regarded as the most serious event in Great Britain's military history since the Indian mutiny.

The Standard says: "General Buller's dispatch is deplorable reading. It is the familiar story of concealed Boers and of British troops marching up blindly almost to the very muzzles of the enemies rifles. It cannot be doubted that the moral effect will be to aggravate our difficulties over the whole field of operations.

"The country has discovered with annoyance and surprise that subduing Boer farmers is about the hardest work we have entered upon since the Indian mutiny. The commandants have show themselves able to give our generals useful but expensive lessons in modern tactics."

The Times says: "Since the days of the Indian mutiny the nation has not been confronted with so painful and anxious a situation, Plainly, General Buller's advance is paralyzed for the moment as completely as Lord Methuen's and General Gatacre's."

The depression over the defeat of Great Britain's trusted and idolized commander is the greater, as during the last forty-eight hours there had been reports of the relief of Ladysmith. Yesterday the War Office allowed it to be understood that the position of affairs in Natal was entirely satisfactory. The reaction is all the more pronounced on this account.

The gloomy information came too late to reach the service clubs, and only a few journalists and stragglers were waiting at the War Office. It has hardly been realized until now, even after the experience of the week, that General Buller could fail. Virtually nothing had been allowed to leak through regarding his preparations, but the public waited patiently, in the confident belief that he was taking such time and precautions as would ensure success.

No independent reports of the engagements have yet been allowed to come through, but General Buller's own dispatch tells the sad tale in sufficient outline to show that the British have been entrapped again by the astute Boers. It was not anticipated that General Buller would make a frontal attack. No criticisms of his movements are made, however, since apparently he suffered a repulse rather than a defeat, and did not push the attack home, but broke it off in the middle so as to save a useless sacrifice of life. It is expected that he will renew the attack shortly. Immediately on receiving the news, the War Office decided to mobilize still another division and to replace the losses of artillery. The necessary reinforcement will be hurried off as speedily as possible.

Fifteen transports are due to arrive at Cape Town between December 17th and January 8th, with about 15,000 troops of all arms, but unless General Buller is able to renew his attack, which is exceedingly doubtful, the British Generals will be compelled, for another fortnight or more, to remain practically on the defensive.

The latest dispatches indicate the continued bombardment of Ladysmith whose position is now perilous.

Major General Sir Herbert Charles Chermside has been appointed to command the Fourteenth brigade in the seventh division.

BLACK DIAMOND RAILROAD.

Ohio, Tennessee and Carolina Railway Organized in Knoxville, Tenn.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Dec. 15.—The Ohio, Tennessee and Carolina Railroad was organized here to-day to supplant the scheme of Col. Albert F. Boone to build the "Black Diamond" Railroad from Columbus, Ohio, to Port Royal, S. C. A failure to make a satisfactory deal for the franchises of the Black Diamond Railroad in Tennessee led General William W. Kirby, acting as the agent for English capitalists, to organize the new company. Kirby has secured an option on the franchise of the Black Diamond road in the Carolinas and Kentucky. The route of the proposed road was inspected by Sir Thomas Tancred, of England, about a year ago, and highly recommended for English investment. General Kirby claims to have at his back enough money to build the road. Colonel Boone, the pioneer of the movement, is bitterly opposed to General Kirby ignoring the franchises of the Black Diamond road in Tennessee.

DISTURBANCE IN CUBA.

Spaniards Attacked by a Mob of Cubans at Manzanillo.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SANTIAGO, CUBA, Dec. 15.—Captain Partello, commanding at Manzanillo, has troops ready for immediate action since December 13th, when three prominent Spaniards gave a banquet in honor of the arrival of friends from Spain. The Cubans claimed that the Spaniards were celebrating the death of Antonio Maceo, and a mob, led by the mayor, attacked the house and demanded the expulsion of the offenders. Captain Partello interviewed and restored order for the time being, but the mob returned daily, until to day, when the Spaniards, fearing violence, came to Santiago. The Spaniards believe the mob leaders were endeavoring to cause trouble with the Americans and to stimulate an uprising.

Another lot of concealed arms has been captured near Guantanamo by the rural guards. A party of colored Cubans were preparing to distribute the weapons.

SHARP COLLOQUY IN THE HOUSE.

Closing Day of the General Debate On the Gold Standard Bill.

BAILEY'S VIGOROUS SPEECH.

In Opposition to the Measure—Bellamy of North Carolina One of the Speakers. The Proceedings in the Senate Were Unimportant.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, December 15.—To-day the practical completion of the Senate committees for the 56th Congress was announced officially by Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island. He presented to the Senate an order fixing the committees and it was adopted without dissent. A few vacancies in the minority representation are yet to be filled. They will be disposed of in a few days.

Senator Davis, Minnesota, chairman of the Committee of Foreign Relatins, offered and secured the passage of a resolution requesting the Secretary of State, if not incompatible with public interests, to transmit to the Senate the reports of the Hon. Bartlett Tripp, Samoan commissioner of affairs in Samoa.

Senator Tillman has passed a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War to submit a survey and estimate of cost for the improvement of Great Pee Dee river, South Carolina, between Cheraw and the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta railroad bridge.

The Senate at 1:20 P. M. adjourned until Monday.

House of Representatives.

The closing day of the general debate on the Financial bill proved to be one of exceptional interest. At the outset a sharp personal colloquy occurred between Representatives Wheeler and Berry, of Kentucky, over the recent Kentucky election and the charges growing out of it. Considerable feeling was shown. Later in the day Mr. Bailey, of Texas, until recently the Democratic floor leader, received close attention in an hour's speech, vigorously presenting the Democratic view and eulogizing the time honored and undying Democratic organization. In marked contrast with Mr Bailey's utterance, Mr. Scudder, of New York, who followed him, announced that as a Democrat he believed in the gold standard and would vote for it. The debate under the five minute rule occurs to morrow.

Early in the course of the debate Mr. Wheeler, Democrat, Kentucky, secured recognition to question statements made by Mr. Berry yesterday as to corruption in the recent Kentucky campaign. "I regret the necessity of having to wash our dirty linen of Kentucky on the floor of the House," said Mr. Wheeler, "but I do not propose that our people shall be maligned and slandered without a word of protest."

Mr. Berry sat a few seats ahead of Mr. Wheeler and the latter addressed himself personally to his colleague. He declared that Mr. Berry represented neither Kentucky nor her people, and that the people of his district would speedily rebuke him by retiring him to private life. The election of Taylor, he asserted, had been bought and paid for, with a railroad on one side and the plain people on the other. But despite this, he said, "Governor Goebell" would yet be seated.

"Yes, I used the word advisedly," proceeded Mr. Wheeler, referring to his characterization of Mr. Goebel as Governor, "for before the buds burst on any tree in Kentucky he will be its chief executive and we will have routed that nefarious gang who won their certificates of election by corruption, fraud and rascality."

Colonel Berry was quickly on his feet as Mr. Wheeler closed and responded savagely, personally and with much feeling. He said the speech just heard was typical of the intelligence of that Kentucky element which would not brook any freedom of opinion. It came with ill-grace from one who represented a district which for years was not true to Democracy. He did not need the influence of the gentleman, or his backers. Four times he had been sent here, and he would return again. Shaking his finger at Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Berry exclaimed: "You are crying at the feet of Goebel and I tell you that your scalp is taken now by Goebel."

Mr. Bailey, Texas, received close attention from both sides when he spoke. He said a remarkable spectacle was presented by the debate on this bill. He recalled that when in the 54th Congress Mr. Towne asserted that the Republican party had never declared for a gold standard, the Congressional Record showed that he was interrupted by many Republicans with the exclamation: "And it never will."

When Mr. Bailey referred to the increased production of gold, Mr. Dalzell interrupted, to ask if in view of this increased supply of gold Mr. Bailey still believed in silver at 16 to 1. The Texan responded emphatically in the affirmative, amid Democratic applause. The Democratic side simply asked a sufficiency of basic money, and if this was supplied by either gold or silver, then instead of refuting the Democratic position, it simply confirmed it.

Mr. Bailey declared that the logical outcome of this bill would be to take the millions of silver impounded in the treasury into the open market and sell it, as Germany has done. If the supporters of the measure were honest and consistent they would thus offer the silver for sale now, as that would be the inevitable fate of silver under this bill. He compared the appreciation of gold values and the corresponding depreciation of cotton and wheat.

Messrs. Jones of Virginia, Cooper of Texas, Williams of Mississippi, and Bellamy of North Carolina, spoke against the bill. Messrs. Dalzell of Pennsylvania, Mondell of Wyoming, Kerr and Bromwell of Ohio, Payne of New York, Brosius of Pennsylvania, and Morris of Minnesota, spoke in favor of the pending measure.

At 5 o'clock the House recessed until 8 P. M.

Representative Linney, of North Carolina, has introduced a bill to reduce the tax on distilled spirits to seventy cents per gallon.

THE SITUATION IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Gen Otis Reports An Engagement With the Insurgent in Isabella Province. Young Still Pursuing Filipinos.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, December 15.—The War Department received a message to-day giving the latest developments in the situation in the Philippines. The cablegram is as follows:

"Manila, December 15.—Batchellor, of the Twenty-fourth infantry battalion, reports that on the 7th instant he had an engagement at the junction of Magat and Rio Grande rivers, Isabella province, the enemy leaving four dead and five mortally wounded in the trenches. Our loss was one drowned and four wounded. He says he is in need of clothing and provisions, and will reach Taguagaron, Cagayan province, shortly. Doubtless the navy relieved him yesterday. Four hundred and seventy Spanish prisoners arrived to-day, among them the sick at Vigan, numbering 120. Young, at Bonqui, northwestern Luzon, reports that his troops are still pursuing the remnants of the insurgents, who have twenty three American prisoners in their possession. The country is exceedingly rough. Our men are without shoes, but still persistently pursuing. Few Spanish prisoners are now in the hands of the insurgents, probably 2,000, mostly in the south. Expect to effect their relief in a few days. Negros reports Sergeant Alfred Roder, Sixth infantry, twenty soldiers and eighteen native police attacked four hundred insurgents at Madrigal, Negros, this morning. No casualties. Enemy's loss 28 killed and many wounded.

(Signed) "Otis."

Will be Summarily Dealt With.

WASHINGTON, December 15.—Isolated bands of bushwhacking insurgents who are caught by our forces in the Philippines are likely to be summarily dealt with. At the cabinet meeting to-day the matter was discussed at some length, and it was the general sentiment that the situation demanded vigorous treatment. As long as the insurgents keep up a show of an army under a semblance of discipline, they will be treated as prisoners of war when captured, but when they degenerate into isolated bands of marauders, harrassing our forces by cold-blooded assassinations, it is the judgment of the officers in command in the Philippines and of the President and of the members of the cabinet that the situation demands summary action.

A DIAMOND FIELD.

A man's Furnishings indicate his good taste. Poorly selected they spoil the effect of even the best of Clothes. Our Furnishings are all selected with the greatest care. Therefore, he is wise who trades with us. His Shirts always fit comfortably, and look well, his Ties are attractive and of the latest styles, and his Hat and Shoes are faultless in make, fit and finish.

--XMAS ADVICE--

May be wasted, as it is only the wise that profit by other peoples' experience, but we will give it for what it is worth.

You will get more real satisfaction, comfort and wear out of one Suit of Custom Tailor-made Clothing than you will out of twenty ready-made Suits.

WHY NOT?

What is a TAILOR for?

To fit every curve, remedy every defect of figure, have your collar lay just so, and give you the style of a gentleman. We do it every time.
